2018년 3월 3일 문제

Some people think that new houses should be built in the same style as the houses already in the area. Others think local council should allow people to build house in their own style. Discuss both views and give your opinion.

Some people 의 주장

- all houses in an area should be built in the same style.

- Outlook of the town

Planned towns and cities look nicer and neater with houses in the same style. A sense of unity can be shown if new houses are built in the same style as existing houses in the area.

Some people 의 주장

- all houses in an area should be built in the same style.

- Reducing possible risks due to uniquely designed buildings

Constructing houses in the same style means that there would not be possible risks which can be caused by different styled buildings.

Example; local people may suffer from noise pollution or rubbish if there are a lot of visitors who want to see a certain building.

Other people 의 주장

- people should be allowed to build houses in their own style under local council's permission.

- Unique buildings can play a role as a landmark of the area

If people can build their houses in whatever style they would like, they may make the appearance unique or attractive. These kinds of buildings can be a landmark and attract more visitors to towns.

Other people 의 주장

- people should be allowed to build houses in their own style under local council's permission.

- Building design represents architects' or owners' characteristics

By constructing houses in people's own style, people like building designers, architects, and owners can express their creativity as well as their own characteristics.

2018년 3월 3일 문제 Sample answer*Main body 2

On the other hand, I believe that people should be allowed to build houses in their own style.

First and foremost, unique buildings can play a role as a landmark of the area. If people can build their houses in whatever style they would like, they may make the appearance unique or attractive. These kinds of buildings can be a landmark and attract more visitors to towns. It can even lead the area to become famous.
