1) How can I get high score in IELTS speaking?

- To be awarded that top grade in IELTS Speaking, you have to respond quickly and appropriately!

It is evident in marking scheme for Fluency and coherence:

Band	Fluency and coherence
9	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• speaks fluently with only rare repetition or self-correction;• any hesitation is content-related rather than to find words or grammar• speaks coherently with fully appropriate cohesive features• develops topics fully and appropriately
8	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• speaks fluently with only occasional repetition or self-correction; hesitation is usually content-related and only rarely to search for language• develops topics coherently and appropriately
7	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• speaks at length without noticeable effort or loss of coherence• may demonstrate language-related hesitation at times, or some repetition and/or self-correction• uses a range of connectives and discourse markers with some flexibility
6	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• is willing to speak at length, though may lose coherence at times due to occasional repetition, self-correction or hesitation• uses a range of connectives and discourse markers but not always appropriately

2) How can I reduce hesitation?

→ Use fillers! (known as language hesitation)

Part 1 & 3 questions

Sleep

Is it necessary to take a nap every day?

What time do you usually go to bed?

Do you always have a good sleep?

- Is it necessary to take a nap every day?

Well... I don't think it's necessary though. If they take a nap every day, they would struggle to adjust their time into work or study. But it might be a good way of taking a break for some people.

- What time do you usually go to bed?

It depends on my condition, but I normally go to bed around 1am or 2am. I can't fall asleep quickly so even I try to sleep earlier, I sleep at around those hours.

- Do you always have a good sleep?

Not really. Actually, I have a weird dream almost every day and I feel quite tired after I get up. But sometimes, I can sleep tight if I'm exhausted.

Part 2 & 3 sample answers with fillers

Describe a perfect holiday you would like to have in the future.

You should say:

- Where and when you would like to go
- Who you would go there with
- What you would do there

and explain why it would be perfect for you.

Well, if I have a chance, I'd really like to spend some weeks on travelling Italy. I'm very keen to visit Italy nowadays, especially Vatican City. Actually I really want to go there in about 4 years.

I suppose I'll go there with my mum. I like travelling with her in fact as we have similar tastes. Also she's quite fond of Italy as well, so it'd be great if I can go there with her.

When I get there, I'd visit many different cities like Rome, Venice, Milan, and so on, and of course, Vatican City. I'd do sight-seeing, shopping, and also visit local restaurants and markets.

I'm quite sure it'd be perfect holiday for me because I've been dreaming about visiting Italy for a few years. I'm very much into all paintings and architectures and I'm sure I can see plenty of those in there. Also travelling with my mother would be wonderful. Just like me, she always wanted to visit Italy and Vatican City, so it'll be marvelous if I can visit there with her. So I'd like to make it happen in next few years.

Part 3

- Are there any special places for visiting in your country?

I could probably say Gyungju, it's a historical city in Southern part of Korea and many people visit there as you can have a glimpse of Korean history. Also many tourists visit Nami-island because of a famous Korean drama. I'm sure there are many other places.

- Do people in your country like to travel abroad?

Yes, of course. The airport is always crowded with people travelling abroad, and also most people tend to go overseas even they have short holidays. I think South-East Asia is famous destination for Korean people.

- Which do you prefer, several short holidays or just a few long holidays (vacations) during the year?

I definitely prefer to have a few long holidays as I can't really do or travel in short breaks. Actually, I like travelling and whenever I travel, I tend to spend at least some days in a certain destination to see the most, so I'd rather have some long holidays, not short ones.
