I have a picture of myself which was taken in a café, when I was living in London, England. I remember the day very clearly since it was a perfect day out with my best friend.

IELTS SPEAKING2018년 하반기 문제*Part 2 sample answer

I think it's been a while, like 4 or 5 years ago. My friend and I decided to hang out together since it was a day off for both of us. We went to a café to have afternoon tea.

IELTS SPEAKING2018년 하반기 문제*Part 2 sample answer

Actually at that time, I bought a new film camera, so my friend and I spent some time taking each other's pictures. This particular picture was taken when I wasn't looking at her, so it looks quite natural.

Well, the moment was really unforgettable. It was such a wonderful day with perfect weather, and I had good time with my best friend. We felt really happy as we could escape from busy daily routine, and I loved it.

Also it's memorable because I took it with a film camera. Actually every camera is digitalized nowadays, and not many people take pictures with a film camera. But it was really nice to take pictures with it. I really loved the day, and the picture of me that my friend took.

Whenever I go somewhere, I take all my cameras and take loads of pictures.

IELTS SPEAKING

- Why do some people like taking photos, and why some don't?
 - Like; just like taking photos, like looking at pictures, like cameras, etc.
 - Dislike; cameras too heavy, don't look good in photos, personal preference, etc.

IELTS SPEAKING

2018년 하반기 문제Part 3 – Photos

- Why do some people like taking photos, and why some don't?

Well, some like it because they like having pictures of what they've done, and flash back memories by seeing them. Some people might not like it because they don't like taking cameras, and they can't be bothered to take pictures, I guess.
